

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY – 01-1011

Ineos Compound Sweden AB

INEOS Compound Sweden AB, manufacture PVC compound for the plastic-processing industry.

Our environmental policy includes important statements concerning our business and involves the entire organization.

INEOS Compound Sweden AB is responsible for it's staff having expertise, competence and high environmental awareness to create favorable conditions for future generations to come.

Environmental considerations are taken into account in all decisions and at all levels in the organization.

Environmental work and the work environment are integrated into the business.

We

- Comply with the laws, regulations and other requirements affecting us.
- Conducts activities in such a way that the environmental impact is minimized.
- Work to use raw materials and energy efficiently.
- Avoid if possible the use of health or environmentally hazardous materials.
- Actively work with the recycling of PVC compound.
- Continuously work on improvements to achieve our environmental goals and action plans.
- Openly communicate policy and environmental facts.
- Meets the INEOS high standards of health, environment, safety and quality
- Influence suppliers and contractors to apply the principles of this policy.
- Work proactively with fire protection systems to prevent fire and minimize injuries in the event of a fire.
- The environmental policy is adopted by the Management Team April 11, 2016

Kent Lindgren
Managing Director