February 2023

Dear customer,

INEOS Composites SDS are available with the new format according to Regulation (EU) 2020/878.

You can recognize the new format in different sections:

- Section 2.3: "Other hazards" now has information about endocrine disruptors.
- Section 3.2: "Mixtures" now contains information about the M-factor, ATE and specific concentration limits.
- Sections 9.1: "Information on basic physical and chemical properties" and 9.2: "Other information" has information on new physical-chemical properties.
- Appears a new subsection 11.2: "Information on other hazards"
- Appears a new subsection 12.6: "Endocrine disrupting properties" and the old subsection 12.6 "Other adverse effects" now is 12.7.

We trust this information proves satisfactory. If you wish to discuss the matter further, please contact INEOS Composites via your sales or customer service representative.
